Member of Executive Council, KeyCorp

Dennis Devine is a Co-President of Key Community Bank. He is responsible for Key's Consumer and Business Banking lines of business nationally. He is also a member of KeyCorp's Executive Council and Executive Leadership Team.

Since joining Key in 2012, Dennis has shaped the bank's client-centric, go-to-market Consumer & Business Banking Strategy. Under his leadership, Consumer and Business Banking teams are executing simplified, clear priorities to help our clients make confident decisions and benefit from Key's expanded product set. At the same time, Dennis has enhanced how we engage our clients with rapid adoption, sales growth, and innovation across our online/mobile, branch, contact center, and ATM channels.

Prior to joining Key, Dennis served as Group Executive Vice President and Director of U.S. Distribution at Citizens Financial Group. In this role, he was responsible for business performance and management of all customer-facing channels across the 12-state Citizens franchise. His teams included 1,400 retail branches, business banking, wealth management, online and mobile banking, telephone contact centers, the ATM network, external partnership management and distribution support.

Previously, Dennis was at PNC Bank where he held senior leadership roles in Retail and Business Banking, as well as serving as Chief Financial Officer for the Retail Bank. Dennis also spent time at McKinsey & Company where he advised the executive leadership of global companies on corporate and business strategy, as well as pricing and marketing strategy. He began his career as an attorney at Jones Day.

Dennis graduated from Harvard Law School magna cum laude where he received the Sears Prize, as well as from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Arts in economics and political science. He lives in Pepper Pike, Ohio, with his wife, Tanutda, and three sons.
